

In Memory of

Fusilier WILLIAM BARLOW

7th Bn., Royal Welch Fusiliers
who died aged 19 on Thursday, 21st September 1944.

Fusilier BARLOW was the son of William and Margaret Barlow, of Ainsworth, Lancashire.

Remembered with honour
VESSEM ROMAN CATHOLIC CEMETERY, Noord-Brabant, Netherlands.

In the perpetual care of
the Commonwealth War Graves Commission

Fusilier 14629333

Grave Reference: Grave 2

Vessem is a small village 12 kilometres south-west of Eindhoven. The cemetery is beside the church, which is 100 metres south of the Eindhoven road from the centre of the village. The two British graves are on the eastern side of the cemetery

In Memory of

Fusilier FREDERICK HALLAM

7th Bn., Royal Welch Fusiliers
who died on Thursday, 21st September 1944.

Remembered with honour

VESSEM ROMAN CATHOLIC CEMETERY, Noord-Brabant, Netherlands.

In the perpetual care of
the Commonwealth War Graves Commission

Fusilier 3455003

Grave Reference: Grave 1

Vessem is a small village 12 kilometres south-west of Eindhoven. The cemetery is beside the church, which is 100 metres south of the Eindhoven road from the centre of the village. The two British graves are on the eastern side of the cemetery